

Richard Roos-Collins
Presentations

“Conflict, Collaboration and Moving Forward in the Klamath Basin,” Oregon Resource Education & Agricultural Leadership Program (November 2022)

“Klamath Hydroelectric Settlement Agreement,” Foundation for Natural Resources and Energy Law, Water Law Institute (November 2022)

“Uncommon Dialogue,” National Hydropower Association, Clean Currents Conference (October 2022)

“Environmental Justice: Origins, Current Implications for Hydro and Future Considerations,” National Hydropower Association, Clean Currents Conference (October 2022)

“Navigating U.S. Hydro Relicensing in an Uncertain and Evolving Regulatory Landscape,” HydroVision (July 2022)

“Water Rights and Public Trust Doctrine,” UC Berkeley Law, Water Law – Visiting Brazilian Scholars (June 2022)

“Klamath Hydroelectric Settlement Agreement – Final Round of Regulatory Approvals,” The Water Report Vol. 219 (August 2022)

“Klamath River Basin Update,” Argent Communications, 36th Annual California Water Law & Policy Conference (May 2022)

“Uncommon Dialogue for Hydropower Reform,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2022)

“Developments in the Public Trust Doctrine since 1996,” Instream Flow Council, Biennial Meeting (April 2022)

“San Francisco Bay-Delta and Voluntary Agreements,” California Water Law Symposium (April 2022)

“Dam Removal on Klamath River,” UC Santa Barbara, Bren School of Environmental Science & Management, Advanced Topics in Environmental Law (January 2022)

“Digitizing California’s Water Rights Records,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Environmental Water Markets Symposium (November 2021)

“Economics of Ecosystem Restoration,” UC Berkeley College of Natural Resources, Agricultural, Food, and Resource Policy (November 2021)

“Conflict, Collaboration and Moving Forward in the Klamath Basin,” Oregon Resource Education & Agricultural Leadership Program (November 2021)

“Climate Change,” The Seminar Group, 30th Annual Oregon Water Law Conference (November 2021)

“Dam Removal in Klamath: A Long Overdue Recognition of the Federal Government’s Trust and Treaty Responsibilities to the Tribes of the Lower Basin,” National Judicial College, Dividing the Waters Conference August 2021)

“Hydropower 101 – 505,” University of Colorado Law School Boulder, Energy Law and Regulation (February 2021)

“Dam Removal on Klamath River,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Advanced Topics in Environmental Law (January 2021)

“Dam Removal on the Klamath and the Future of US Rivers,” UC Berkeley Law, Center for Law Energy & Environment, Brownbag Symposium (December 2020)

“Clean Water Act Section 401,” National Hydropower Association, California Regional Meeting (December 2020)

“Hydropower Policies and Regulations,” HydroVision (November 2020)

“Delta Law and Policy,” California State University Monterey, Natural Resources Law Class (November 2020)

“Klamath Agreements,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Sustainable Water Markets Symposium (November 2020)

“Conflict, Collaboration and Moving Forward in the Klamath Basin,” Oregon Resource Education & Agricultural Leadership Program (November 2020)

“Dam Removal on Klamath River,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Advanced Topics in Environmental Law (February 2020)

“San Francisco Bay-Delta: Voluntary Agreements v. Tragedy of the Commons,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Sustainable Water Markets Symposium (November 2019)

“Conflict, Collaboration and Moving Forward in the Klamath Basin,” Oregon Resource Education & Agricultural Leadership Program (November 2019)

“Progress in Implementing the Klamath Hydroelectric Settlement Agreement,” The Water Reporter Vol. 187 (August 2019)

“Water Rights and Public Trust Doctrine,” UC Berkeley Law, Water Law – Visiting Brazilian Scholars (July 2019)

“Strategies for Managing Risk in Complex Ecosystem Restoration Projects,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Sustainable Water Markets Symposium (November 2018)

“Klamath Basin Update,” The Seminar Group, 27th Annual Oregon Water Law Conference (November 2018)

“Dam Removal as Approach to Reconciliation Ecology,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Advanced Topics in Environmental Law (November 2017)

“A Modern Water Rights Information System for California,” Imagine H2O, Water Policy + Innovation Summit (May 2017)

“Reconciliation of Economic Use and Public Trust @ Mono Lake, Klamath, and Delta,” UC Berkeley College of Natural Resources, Agricultural and Resource Economics Graduate Seminar (February 2017)

“Delta and the Drought,” California Water Law Symposium (January 2017)

“Dam Removal,” UC Santa Barbara Bren School, Advanced Topics in Environmental Law (May and October 2016)

“Dam Removal in California: Movement or Fad?,” Association of California Water Agencies, Annual Fall Conference (September 2016)

“Improving Ecosystem Management during Droughts,” Public Policy Institute of California (July 2016)

“If Not Now, When?,” Northern California Water Association, Annual Meeting (March 2016)

“Future of Water Supply in California: in Time of Shortage, Who Gets Cut and How Much? Agriculture? Environment? People?,” Los Angeles County Bar Association, 14th Annual Environmental Law Symposium (November 2015)

“Water Management in California in Times of Drought,” CLE International, Water Law Institute (October 2015)

“Mono Lake and the Future of the Public Trust,” World Water Congress XV (May 2015)

“Role of Dams in Water-Constrained World,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2015)

“Application of Public Trust Doctrine at Scale that Matters,” UC Berkeley Law, Mono Lake @ 20 Symposium (November 2014)

“Groundwater Issues and Water Management – Strategies Addressing the Challenges of Sustainability,” Groundwater Resources Association (March 2014)

“Klamath Water Wars – or Peace,” UC Berkeley College of Natural Resources, Environmental Policy, Administration, and Law (February 2014)

“Bay Delta Conservation Plan,” League of Women Voters, Bay Area Conservation Forum (February 2014)

“Water Management in Times of Shortage,” CLE International, Water Law Institute (November 2013)

“State Initiatives to Regulate Flow,” American Bar Association, Water Law Conference (June 2013)

“San Francisco Bay-Delta: Something Old or Something New,” University of San Francisco Law School (April 2013)

“Watershed Approach to ESA Compliance,” CLE International, Endangered Species Act Conference (April 2013)

“Bay-Delta Conservation Plan,” California League of Women Voters, Water – California Gold 2013 (February 2013)

“Klamath Water Wars – or Peace?,” UC Berkeley Law, Indian Law (January 2013)

“Klamath Water Wars – or Peace?,” California Water Law Symposium (January 2013)

“Wicked Problems in Western Water,” UC Berkeley College of Natural Resources, Earth and Planetary Science - Climate Change (November 2012)

“Sustainable Hydropower in Mountain Communities,” Colorado Friends of Rivers and Renewables (August 2012)

“Ending Western Water Wars,” Oregon State University (April 2012)

“California Dreamin’: Is There Hope for a Streamlined Policy on Hydropower?,” EUCL, Hydropower’s Evolving Role in Western Grid Reliability (December 2011)

“Reducing California’s Carbon Emissions and Protecting our Fisheries: How the Endangered Species Act is Influencing California’s Hydropower Industry,” Association of California Water Agencies, Fall Conference (November 2011)

“Timing is Almost Everything in Water Resources Negotiation,” HydroVision (July 2011)

“Water Quality Regulation,” Instream Flow Council, Biennial Conference (April 2011)

“Management of Water Resources,” CLE International, Endangered Species Act Conference (April 2011)

“Last Chance for Sustainability of Colorado as Western Water System,” CLE International, Law of Colorado Conference (March 2011)

“More of the Same or Brave New Work, California Farm Bureau, Ag Summit (February 2011)

“Mono Lake and Other Public Trust Resources,” Squaw Valley Institute (January 2011)

“Hydropower: More of the Same, or Brave New World,” Stockholm Environmental Institute, Cross Currents: Water and Energy Challenges in the 21st Century Symposium (November 2010)

“Next Gen Hydropower,” Harvesting Clean Energy Conference (February 2010)

“Reversing the Tragedy of the Commons,” Ecological Society of America, 94th Annual Meeting (August 2009)

“Fundamentals of Hydropower Regulation, UC Davis Law School (June 2009)

“Future of Hydropower,” Lewis and Clark Law School, Greening the Grid Conference (April 2009)

“Settlements as Basis for Water Allocation,” Alberta Canada Water Council, Water Shortage Conference (March 2009)

“Future of Klamath River,” UC Davis Extension, Endangered Species Act Conference (October 2008)

“Bankside San Jose,” chapter in Rivertown; Rethinking Urban Rivers, MIT Press (2007)

“Bay Delta Conservation Plan,” California Farm Bureau, Annual Meeting (December 2007)

“The Crisis in the Delta: What Does It Mean for a Long-Term Delta Vision,” Water Education Foundation, Annual Conference (July 2007)

“Bay Delta Conservation Plan,” Continuing Legal Education, Inc., Endangered Species Act Conference (November 2007)

“Bay Delta Conservation Plan,” Association of California Water Agencies, Fall Conference (October 2007)

“Bay Delta Conservation Plan,” California Bar Association, Annual Environmental Law Conference (October 2007)

“Hydropower Innovations,” UC Davis Center for Watershed Sciences (March 2007)

“Oroville Settlement,” UC Berkeley Law (February 2007)

“Integrated Licensing Process for Hydropower: Lessons Learned,” Sierra Business Council, Annual Conference (November 2006)

“Bay Delta Conservation Plan,” Continuing Legal Education, Inc., Endangered Species Act Conference (November 2006)

“Lessons from the Mono Lake Cases for Effective Management of Public Trust Resources,” Southeastern Environmental Law Journal (Fall 2006)

“Mono Lake Cases,” University of South Carolina Law School, Coastal Islands and Public Trust Doctrine Symposium (September 2006)

“All-American Canal,” American Groundwater Association, Annual Conference (September 2006)

“Common Ground on Renewable Energy” and “Implementation of Energy Policy Act of 2005,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2006)

Guest Editor, “2005 Energy Bill,” American Bar Association, Energy Committees Newsletter (June 2005)

“A Plan to Restore the Public Trust Uses of Rivers and Creeks,” Texas Law Review (2005)

Co-author, Citizens Guide to Hydropower (e-book, Hydropower Reform Coalition (2005)

“Settlements in Water Rights Disputes,” Association of California Water Agencies, Fall Conference (San Diego, December 2005)

“Adaptive Management in Water Rights Regulation,” Water Supply Reliability Conference (June 2005)

“A Perpetual Experiment to Restore and Manage Silicon Valley’s Guadalupe River,” Golden Gate University Law Review (Spring 2005)

“Adaptive Management,” UC Davis Extension, Sustainable Rivers Conference (May 2005)

“Innovation in Hydropower Technology” and “Alternative Dispute Resolution,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2005)

“A Plan to Restore Public Trust Uses of Rivers and Creeks,” University of Texas Law School, Changing Directions in Water Law Conference (February 2005)

“Public Trust Doctrine,” UC Davis Extension, Sustainable Rivers Conference (June 2004)

“Integrated Licensing Process,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2004)

“Can We Make a Deal?,” American Bar Association, Water Law Conference (San Diego, February 2004)

“Integrated Licensing Process before the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission,”

The Nature Conservancy, Conference on Ecologically Sustainable Water Management (December 2003)

“The Future of the Public Trust Doctrine,” UC Davis Extension, Preserving California’s Rivers Conference (May 2003)

“Groundwater Regulation,” Association of California Water Agencies, Spring Conference (May 2002)

“Integrating Environmental Concerns into Energy Market Design,” Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Southeast Energy Infrastructure Conference (May 2002)

“Working with Conservation Groups” and “Status of Administrative Reform,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2002)

“The Future of the Public Trust Doctrine,” Association of California Water Agencies, Fall Conference (October 2001)

“Procedures for Public Participation in Reoperating Dams,” The Nature Conservancy, Conference on Managing River Flows for Biodiversity (August 2001)

“Strategies for Collaborative Negotiations in Licensing Proceedings,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (April 2001)

“Procedures for Public Participation in Reoperating Dams,” The Nature Conservancy, Managing River Flows for Biodiversity Conference (August 2001)

“Strategies for Collaborative Processes,” HydroVision (August 2000)

“Hydropower Licensing Strategy,” Alaska Department of Fish and Game, staff training symposium (December 1998)

“Compliance with Hydropower Licenses,” HydroVision (August 1998)

“Public Trust Doctrine Strategy,” Instream Flow Council, Annual Conference (March 1998)

“Environmental Benefits of Relicensing,” University of Colorado Natural Resources Law Center, Annual Conference (June 1997)

“Public Trust Doctrine Applications in Alaska,” American Water Resources Association/Alaska Section, Annual Conference (May 1997)

“Public Trust Workshop,” American Fisheries Society, Midwestern Fish and Wildlife Conference (December 1996)

“Regulatory Reform” and “Endangered Species Act,” HydroVision (August 1996)

“Regulatory Reform,” National Hydropower Association, Annual Conference (March 1996)

“Public Trust Applications to Instream Flow Protection,” National Instream Flow Program Conference (April 1996)

“River Management: Implications of Listing Salmon/Steelhead under the Endangered Species Act,” UC Davis Extension, California Riparian-Rivers Ecosystem Conference (November 1995)

“Preserving the Public Trust,” Western Regional Instream Flow Conference III (November 1995)

“Overview of California Water Law,” CLE International, Continuing Legal Education Conference (July 1995)

“Water Resources and the Endangered Species Act,” UC Davis Extension, Endangered Species Conference (April 1995)

“Threatened and Endangered Species -- Public Trust Resources, Private Property, and Workable Solutions,” Petro-Tech, Oil and Gas Conference and Environmental Trade Show (April 1995)

“Legal Authorities for Restoration of Salmon Fisheries,” Thirteenth Annual Salmonid Restoration Federation Conference (February 1995)

“Mono Lake Cases,” Review of Legal Developments Rivers (winter 1994)

Peer Reviewer, Guide to the Federal and California Endangered Species Act, Planning and Conservation League Foundation (1994)

“Cumulative Impact Analysis of Rivers Basins by FERC and other Agencies,” American Bar Association, Section of Natural Resources, Energy, and Environmental Law, Fall Conference (September 1994)

“Water Reform -- If Not Now, When?,” Southern California Water Update (June 1994)

“Financing Water Projects When Project Purposes Change,” Association of California Water Agencies, Spring Conference (May 1994)

“Public Trust Doctrine,” Water Education Foundation, Continuing Legal Education Conference (May 1994)

“FERC Relicensing,” American River Management Society, Bi-Annual Conference (April 1994)

“The Future of the Environmental Movement,” Friends of the River, Annual Conference (March 1994)

“The California Water Plan,” California Water Resources Association, Annual Conference (March 1994)

“Public Trust Doctrine,” in “Environmental Law and Resource Management,” Department of City and Regional Planning, University of California at Berkeley (February 1994)

“New Directions” and “Reform of Dam Operations, American Rivers, Annual Conference (November 1993)

“The Reauthorization of the Endangered Species Act,” California Water Resources Association, Annual Conference (August 1993)

“Central Valley Project Improvement Act,” California Water Resources Association, Annual Conference (March 1993)

“Water Transfers: How They Can Benefit Both Private Interests and the Environment,” Land Use Forum (Continuing Education of the Bar), Vol. 1 No. 5, fall 1992

Principal author, A Strategic Plan for Control of Sedimentation in Grass Valley Creek, U.S. Department of the Interior, Trinity River Task Force (February 1992)

“Water, Agriculture and the Environment,” Santa Clara University, Agriculture Leadership Program (January 1992, 1993)

“The Stake of Cities and Counties in Solving the Water Puzzle,” Association of California Water Agencies, Fall Conference (October 1991)

“Water Transfers and Marketing,” Yolo County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, Third Annual Water Awareness Forum (May 1991)

“The Impact of Reclamation Law on Water Management and Environmental Mitigation in Federal Projects,” Chapter IX, Legal and Institutional Structures for Managing Agricultural Drainage in the San Joaquin Valley: Designing a Future, U.S. Department of the Interior's San Joaquin Valley Drainage Program (September 1990)

Co-author, Rivers at Risk: The Concerned Citizen's Guide to Hydropower, Island Press (1989)

“Voluntary Conveyance of the Right to Receive a Water Supply from the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation,” 13 Ecology Law Quarterly 773, December 1986

“Marketing of Water Rights,” American Society of Agricultural Engineers, Annual Conference (December 1986)

“Participating in the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Regulation of Hydropower,” American Rivers, Annual Conference (1981-5, 1988-9)

Contributor, American Bar Association, Natural Resources Committee, Air Quality Subcommittee Report, Natural Resources Law: The Year in Review (1987-1988)

“Who Owns the Water? Public Interest Advocacy in River Management,” Harvard Law School, Program on the Legal Profession (1985)

“Further Study of Hydroelectric Development of the Tuolumne River,” U.S. House of Representatives, Subcommittee on Public Lands and National Parks (May 1984)

“Small-Scale Hydropower,” Edison Electric Institute, Conference on “Electric Utilities and Renewable Energy” (November 1984)

“Mitigating Environmental Impacts of Small-Scale Hydropower,” New England Rivers Conference (November 1984)

“How Many Kilowatts is a Fish Worth?,” Hydrowire (winter 1983)

“The Regulatory System for Low-head Hydropower,” UC Davis Extension (April 1983)

“Development of San Francisco's Water Supply System,” UC Davis Law School, Water Law class (April 1983)

Intervention in the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Review of Hydropower, Federation of Fly Fishermen (1982)

“A Practical Alternative to the Peripheral Canal,” California Water Commission, Annual Conference (February 1981)

“Improvements in the Regulation of Hydropower,” California Assembly, Subcommittee on Energy (March 1981)